Modelica is an object-oriented, declarative, multi-domain modeling language for component-oriented modeling of complex systems, e.g., systems containing mechanical, electrical, electronic, hydraulic, thermal, control, electric power or process-oriented subcomponents. The free Modelica language is developed by the non-profit Modelica Association. The Modelica Association also develops the free ...

Solid modeling (or modelling) is a consistent set of principles for mathematical and computer modeling of three-dimensional solids. Solid modeling is distinguished from related areas of geometric modeling and computer graphics by its emphasis on physical fidelity. Together, the principles of geometric and solid modeling form the foundation of 3D-computer-aided design and in general support the ...

L Object = Luminance of the object. L Background = Luminance of the background. If we use the luminance values shown in the upper portion of the figure we can calculate that the lower portion of the cylinder, where the roadway is the background, has a contrast of  $(1-22)/22 = -0.95$ , with the negative value denoting that it is negative contrast.

Systems Simulation: The Shortest Route to Applications. This site features information about discrete event system modeling and simulation. It includes discussions on descriptive simulation modeling, programming commands, techniques for sensitivity estimation, optimization and goal-seeking by simulation, and what-if analysis.

The latest edition of the Exposure Factors Handbook was released in 2011, but since October 2017, EPA has begun to release chapter updates individually. This new process allows risk assessors to get the latest information as new data becomes available. To make it easier to find these chapter updates, the chapter date column has been added to Table 1.

Intuitive understanding of Fading would be simple, but the detailed description is pretty difficult and would be even more difficult to understand the details without going through the complicated mathematical process.
